JOHN PETER THOMPSON

Chair at Prince George's County Historic Preservation Commission

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2022 | 7:00 - 9:00 PM

What are some of the signs that an insurrection is in the works? What is the difference between an uprising and a riot? Join us for an online "evening by the fireside," as we listen to John Peter Thompson talk about rebellion against established authority through a historical lens—from the burning of the Senate in Rome to Jack Ransom's 1739 Rebellion (the most massive slave revolt in America's history), to the bold bid for freedom lead by slaves Mark Caesar and William Wheeler in 1845, and most recently, the attack on the United States Capitol.

There will be opportunities throughout the evening for questions and answers.

John Peter Thompson is a nationally recognized lecturer and expert on horticulture, bioeconomics, and historic preservation.
